

INFJ “The Counselor”

INFJ's are gentle and caring individuals. Artistic and creative, they live in a world of possibilities. Only one percent of the population has an INFJ Personality Type, making it the rarest of all the types. INFJ's have an insight into people and situations. They are deep, complex individuals, who are quite private and typically difficult to understand. INFJ's hold back part of themselves and can be secretive.

But the INFJ is as genuinely warm as they are complex. INFJ's hold a special place in the heart of people who they are close to. INFJ's are concerned for people's feelings and try to be gentle to avoid hurting anyone. They are very sensitive to conflict and cannot tolerate it very well. They may tend to internalize conflict into their bodies and experience health problems when under a lot of stress.

The INFJ is a natural nurturer - patient, devoted, and protective. The INFJ usually shows up in areas where they can be creative and somewhat independent. INFJ's are also good at volunteering, wanting to help other.

The INFJ individual is gifted in ways that other types are not. They are capable of great depth of feeling and personal achievement.

Possible Career Paths for INFJ's:

Counselor / Social Worker
Teachers
Medical Doctors / Dentists
Psychologists
Musicians & Artists
Child Care
Psychiatrists
Clergy

